The Way to reach our dream

In 2009, 160 women contributed to making a beaded chair which has travelled South Africa collecting dreams. The dreams and locations have been documented by two photographers, Peter Upfold and Matthew Willman who have donated their time and creativity to the project. The chair is being used to raise money to rebuild our craft centre. At present we have no space to store, work or be creative and Woza Moya can no longer function effectively. In order for us to support more crafters we need more space. Our new craft building and offices will allow us to grow into a centre of excellence a creative beacon of hope. Your support is much appreciated.

Inspiring, motivating and sharing our stories and dreams

We hope that we inspire you to take an active role in raising more HIV/AIDS awareness and in fighting the stigma associated with this pandemic. The Dreams for Africa project is an excellent example of an innovative way of tackling the AIDS pandemic. We ask for your support, by either buying an artwork, making a donation/sponsorship or supporting the chair initiatives. Make our dreams come true, help us build our Craft centre, so we can continue to serve our community and to ensure a bright future for all.

We would love to take the exhibition and the chair around South Africa catching more dreams and stories from beautiful South Africans. We would like to share the inspirational chair story with the rest of South Africa in a coffee-table book, film, road-trip, documentary and future exhibitions. We invite sponsors to come on board to sponsor one of these initiatives.

Please feel free to contact us if you should have any further questions, regarding our project, prices or sponsorship.

Kind regards Claudia and Paula
